This award will provide a $3500 scholarship toward a year or $2500 towards a semester student exchange program for a promising language student who would otherwise be unlikely to have the chance to travel or study overseas. The scholarship is supported by the Australian Federation of Modern Language Teachers Associations (AFMLTA). Please include any information that you believe supports the student's application, including his/her commitment to the study of the language and how you believe s/he would benefit from winning this award. Feel free to attach further pages if required.

To the best of our knowledge, there is no impediment to this student receiving this scholarship if selected.

Scholarships

SCHOLARSHIP

Student Exchange Australia offers a total of 35 scholarships valued at over $112,000 each year:

24 Language Scholarships

Valued at either $2,500 or $3,500 each.

In addition to your completed application form, applicants must write a 1000 word essay entitled "Why Learn French?" (or German, or Japanese, or Italian, or Spanish, for example). The application and essay must also be accompanied by a language teacher's recommendation form, which may be downloaded from our website at www.studentexchange.org.au. Deadlines are the same as for the Early Bird Discount noted above.

9 Creative Arts Scholarships -

Valued between $1,000 and $3,500 each.

Get creative! "Make Your Mark" is a national online t-shirt design competition. There are three competitions each year, all with different themes. See www.makeyourmark.org.au for details.

2 International Affairs Scholarships

Valued at either $2,500 or $3,500 each.

These Scholarships are named after Rawdon Dalrymple AO, one of Australia's leading post war diplomats. In addition to your completed application form, applicants must write a 1000 word essay. If you're in year 9 or 10, the essay is to take the form of a letter starting with "Dear Prime Minister..." and must address a matter of international importance such as, the environment or human rights, for example. If you're in year 11 or 12 the essay is to address a topic of international importance, such as, global warming or Australia's trading relationships, for example. Choose a subject that you're passionate about and argue your point. The scholarships can be used toward a Student Exchange Australia year ($3,500) or semester ($2,500) program. Deadlines are the same as for the Early Bird Discount noted above.

Rawdon Dalrymple AO

Rawdon Dalrymple was born in Sydney and went to school and university there. He was Rhodes Scholar for NSW in 1952 and graduated from Oxford with first class honours in Philosophy, Politics and Economics. He lectured in philosophy at Sydney University and then joined the Department of External Affairs in 1957.

He joined the Asian Development Bank in Manila in 1967 as Alternate Director, was then minister in the Australian embassy in Jakarta from 1969 to 1972, and ambassador to Israel from 1972 to 1975. In 1981 Mr Dalrymple was appointed ambassador to Indonesia, in 1985 ambassador to the United States and in 1989 ambassador to Japan. He was made an officer of the Order of Australia in 1985. After retiring from Foreign Affairs and Trade in 1994 Rawdon Dalrymple had a number of business and government appointments.
